

MOHAWK MAFIA

OFFICIAL INDUCTION KIT

Issued by the Office of da Chief Mohawk Officer

Welcome to da Family

Well, well, well. Look who showed up.

You didn't just follow an account. You got made. Dat's different, and dat's on purpose. Around here we don't do fans — we do Family. So paw's up, chin up, and let's make it official.

I'm Sir Belvedere Chestnut Graham, Duke of Second Dinner, Certified Hearing Alert Service Dog, and Chief Mohawk Officer of dis whole operation. My people are Mahm and Dad. Mahm drives da bus. I run da Family.

Dis kit is your induction paperwork. Read it, sign it (or paw-print it, no judgment), and welcome yourself into da Mohawk Mafia proper.

Da Oath

Paw on heart. Repeat after me:

- 1. I will comment before I scroll past.*
- 2. I will never let a Belvy post go unliked, even on a Monday.*
- 3. I will defend Second Dinner as a sacred and non-negotiable institution.*
- 4. I will treat every Butter Incident, Bissell showdown, and Witness Protection Era update as breaking news.*
- 5. I will call it 'da Family,' never 'da fanbase.'*
- 6. I will keep my Code Name classified from civilians.*

Your Code Name

Every made member of da Mohawk Mafia gets a Code Name — dis is how we know you inside da Family without blowin' anybody's cover.

- Drop your traits (hair color, tail type, anything distinctive about you or your own dog) into da Code Name Generator.
- Pick your specialty — Security, Finding, Herding, Stealing Socks, whatever fits.

- Your Code Name comes out short, sharp, and yours. Numbers optional, swagger not optional.
- Once it's yours, it's yours — every name gets checked against da Family Registry so no two members ever share one.

Ranks of da Family

- Recruit — you just joined da Family. Welcome in, Code Name pending.
- Operative — your Code Name is assigned, classified, and locked in da Registry.
- Handler — you've brought at least one new Recruit into da Family.
- Legend — you've been here since da Butter Incident. Founding-era status.
